

Trustee Father Gambet Announces Retirement May 2017

Daniel G. Gambet, O.S.F.S., has announced his retirement as a Trustee of the Harry C. Trexler Trust, effective May 21, 2017.

Barnet H. Fraenkel, Chair of the Trustees for the 2017 fiscal year, said, “With Father Gambet’s retirement, we lose a highly valued colleague, and the Trexler Trust loses an extraordinary resource. Father Gambet’s abundant compassion, keen insights into human behavior, as well as, his management and organizational skills and investment expertise have significantly impacted philanthropy in Lehigh County and beyond. For twenty years, Father Gambet has challenged his co-Trustees to give more intelligently and with great care. Countless non-profit organizations have benefitted from his tireless service on their behalf. We will sorely miss Father Gambet’s wisdom and understanding, and we thank him for his long years of distinguished service.”

Father Gambet was named Trustee Emeritus to the Harry C. Trexler Trust in recognition of his unmatched service.
