Lisa M. Curran Selected as Program Officer for the Trexler Trust

Ms. Lisa M. Curran of Whitehall has been selected to fill the role of Program Officer for the Harry C. Trexler Trust.

“Lisa’s exceptional work with The Century Fund Trust makes her the ideal person to handle this important work for Trexler and the community that we serve,” said Janet Roth, Executive Director for the Trust. “We are pleased to add Lisa’s unique skillset and deep knowledge of Allentown and Lehigh County to our small staff.”

“After an exhaustive, nationwide search for an experienced program officer of a private foundation, we’re excited to engage Lisa quickly in our work. Lisa served admirably with the now closed Century Fund and we’re pleased to take advantage of her direct experience in our field and with our community.”

Previously, Lisa worked with the Century Fund for twenty-one years, serving as Executive Director for the last eighteen years. Established by Donald P. Miller, former owner and publisher of the Morning Call, Lisa and the Fund served over 100 organizations each year providing support to community members in the areas of education, health, social services, children & youth, the arts, and the overall vitality of the community. Lisa has served on various boards and committees including Upside Allentown/Neighborhood Partnership Program, Downtown Allentown Community Development Initiative, and
